

Licensed Practical Nurse (Casual/Relief – Staff Supported Home)

Chilliwack Society for Community Living has exciting opportunities for employment, providing supports to individuals with developmental disabilities to enable them to be an integral part of the community.

- Are you looking for challenging and rewarding employment?
- Are you a people person who likes to help, coach, mentor, guide and walk alongside others?
- Do you want to make a difference and build connections within your community?

If yes, we have an opportunity for you...read on!

Why you should work for CSCL:

- Competitive Wages! $28.70 - $32.98 per hour
- Comprehensive Benefits including Extended Health, Dental and Vision care, as well as participation in the Municipal Pension Plan, when eligible
- Opportunity to positively impact the community and contribute to a “Centre of Excellence”
- Employee appreciation incentives
- Training, job development, and growth opportunities!
- Recipient of the Canadian Non Profit Employer of Choice Award (neoc.ca) since 2017
- This position requires Union membership (BCGEU)

What you’ll do as the LPN:

- Support and perform assigned nursing tasks for individuals with diverse abilities
- Take on community support worker duties as needed such as support with personal care, activities, personal growth and personal relationship development.
- Must be responsive to personal choices always offering a wide variety of typical recreation and life-skills options.
- Will promote the value, importance and need for diversity and inclusion within the whole community
- The LPN is a dedicated and knowledgeable member of an organization wide support team. He/she is empowered through an action planning process to provide excellence in service provision.
- The LPN must function as a full member of an individual’s care team consisting of: other staff, the individual, family members, social workers, facilitators, school or program staff, and other identified individuals.

Qualifications:

- Diploma from an approved Practical Nursing program and current Registration with the BC College of Nurses (BCCNP)
- Experience or education as a Community Support Worker (preferred)
- Valid Class 5 BC Driver's license and meet all other CSCL employment criteria (Criminal Record Check, Medical Certificate, etc.)
- Must possess demonstrated experience delivering residential, recreational, social, vocational, and/or life skills training.
- Experience in completing Nursing tasks related to Diabetes and Seizure Management is essential.
- Experience in alternative communication methods.
- Excellent problem solving, decision making and creative thinking skills and demonstrated skills in crisis intervention and skills in dealing with difficult behaviors.
- Excellent written and verbal communication and reporting skills in English.
- Flexibility and Availability to respond to calls for shift coverage.

Schedule:

This position is Casual/Relief status - Get called in for shifts if/when needed. Thursday to Saturday availability is required.

To Apply:

Fill out the online application form on our website at www.cscl.org, or, by clicking the following link:
External Application Form – Chilliwack Society for Community Living

Questions before Applying? Contact us at careers@cscl.org

About CSCL

The Chilliwack Society For Community Living (CSCL) is a non-profit organization that supports adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families in the Chilliwack and surrounding areas since 1954.

CSCL holds its values and vision at the core of its operations and is dedicated to achieving its mission: to provide quality individualized supports to enhance the lives of adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families.

For more information about CSCL, check out our website at www.cscl.org

