
Community Living Support Worker (Posting #22-015) (Full Time, Temporary – Community Inclusion Service)

Chilliwack Society for Community Living has exciting opportunities for employment, providing supports to individuals with developmental disabilities to enable them to be an integral part of the community.

- Are you looking for challenging and rewarding employment?
- Are you a people person who likes to help, coach, mentor, guide and walk alongside others?
- Do you want to make a difference and build connections within your community?

If yes, we have an opportunity for you...read on!

Why you should work for CSCL:

- Recipient of the Canadian Non Profit Employer of Choice Award (neoc.ca) since 2017!
- Opportunity to positively impact the community and contribute to a "Centre of Excellence"
- Culture of appreciation, recognition and inclusiveness
- Training, job development, and professional growth opportunities
- Competitive Wages: $21.63 - $25.19 per hour
- Comprehensive Benefits and Municipal Pension Plan (MPP), when eligible

What you'll do as the Community Living Support Worker:

- Provide support to individuals with varied abilities within a day program setting
- Perform safe lifting and transferring techniques (training provided).
- Participate in the same events and activities as the individual(s) you are supporting (e.g.: swimming), including transportation of supported individuals.
- Promote and support Individual rights and facilitate meaningful community inclusion.
- Encourage learning opportunities for personal growth and development for the individual(s) you are supporting.
- Encourage and create opportunities for the development of personal relationships for the individual(s) you are supporting.
- Contribute to the development and implementation of monthly activity schedules for the individual(s) you are supporting.
- Promote Positive Behaviour Supports and effective communication.
- This position requires Union membership (BCGEU)

Qualifications:

- Education and/or experience working with diverse abilities, particularly individuals with high risk behaviours and high medical needs. Knowledge and experience in positive behavioral supports.
- Must be physically able to meet the demands of the job, such as lifting/transferring, personal care and recreational activities.
- Able to adapt and accommodate individual needs without prejudice or influence. Willing to take on new tasks in a variety of settings.
- Knowledge of Social Capital and developing social capital networks with people.
- Positive and pleasant work attitude, effective communication skills and a great work ethic.
- Basic knowledge of Google Drive and MS Office.
- Must possess a valid BC Class 5 Driver's License.
- Emergency First Aid Certification with CPR (or a willingness to obtain during probation period).
- Able to meet all other CSCL employment criteria (e.g.: Criminal Record Search, Good Health Certificate, Food Safe Certificate, Vaccination Requirements, etc.)

Schedule: This position is a Temporary Float Position*, 30 hours per week. Schedule provided 2 weeks in advance.

Temporary until 8/31/2022 or until return of incumbent. Temporary positions have the opportunity to lead to other PT and FT positions, through the internal application process. If you do not secure another position by the time this position expires, your status can default to "Casual/Relief."*

A Float Position covers shorts from vacation and leave requests. The schedule will vary and can include daytime, evening and weekend shifts. Therefore, you must be available for all shifts. It is possible to work up to 40 hours straight time in this position and 7 days per week. May include shifts at multiple program sites.*

To Apply:

Fill out the online application form on our website at www.cscl.org, or, by clicking the following link:
External Application Form – Chilliwack Society for Community Living

Questions before Applying? Visit www.cscl.org/careers or contact us at careers@cscl.org

About CSCL

The Chilliwack Society For Community Living (CSCL) is a non-profit organization that supports adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families in the Chilliwack and surrounding areas since 1954.

CSCL holds its values and vision at the core of its operations and is dedicated to achieving its mission: to provide quality individualized supports to enhance the lives of adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families.

For more information about CSCL, check out our website at www.cscl.org

